

CHURCHES MAY FORM COUNCIL IN THIS COUNTY

Churches of Adams County sent representatives to an "exploratory meeting" which was held at the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren to consider "the need for organizing an Adams County Council of Churches." There were 46 persons in attendance from eight denominations and a number of county churches.

The Rev. Lester J. Karschner, Abbotstown, served as the convener of the meeting and following the devotional period which was led by the host pastor, Rev. Robert Knechel, reviewed the interest for such a council.

The Rev. Mr. Karschner said: "During the last five years there has been a growing sense of need within our ministerial fellowships, youth activities and Christian education programs for closer coordination in the total program of outreach as carried on by our church in Adams County." He added that Tuesday's meeting was the third such meeting called in recent months. The first was by a small committee for the study, the second by a group who issued a call to all churches to send representatives to Tuesday's meeting.

Heads Steering Committee
Luther M. Lady, Biglerville, was selected as the chairman of the steering committee. This committee will study and set up plans for a subsequent meeting when a proposed constitution will be presented. Present Tuesday were representatives from the Adams County Council of Christian Education, the Gettysburg Ministerium, the Littlestown Ministerium, the Adams County Youth Council, the committee on migrant work and other related groups. Miss Alma Miller was selected as the secretary of the meeting.

Hear From State Council
The Rev. William H. Vastine of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches spoke briefly on the purposes of such a council, and described some of its functions. It seemed to be the general consensus that such a council would aid in promoting the work of the Christian churches in the county and would place more responsibility on laymen, rather than on the clergy. The effect of uniting and creating greater fellowship in a united effort for Christ is the paramount concern for such a program, the speaker explained.

Each church in the county will receive word about the next meeting and is requested to have representation, both from the ministry and the laity.

The Rev. Victor Meredith, president of the Adams County Ministerium, closed the meeting with prayer.

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—A Washington County woman was formally charged yesterday with beating her 10-month-old daughter to death with an empty pop bottle.

A warrant charging murder was served on Mrs. Betty June Oaks, 29, of Leitersburg in the death of her only child, June Tone Oaks.

The little girl died Monday night of a fractured skull in a Waynesboro, Pa., hospital.

State police Cpl. Harold Basore said Mrs. Oaks admitted striking the child with a soft drink bottle Monday. She told the officer that the little girl refused to eat and cried constantly, and that it got on her nerves.

A preliminary arraignment for Mrs. Oaks was scheduled for today before Magistrate Paul Ottlinger.

Dr. Ralph Funch of Waynesboro, who pronounced the child dead, said she apparently had been struck several times in the head, side and leg.

The Oaks family formerly resided in Franklin County, Pa. The father, Howard Oaks, is employed in Waynesboro as an automobile salesman.

Court record here disclose that Mrs. Oaks recently was committed to a hospital for treatment of a mental illness.

FARMER GROUP FIGHTS LIMITED ACCESS ROADS

The Adams County Farmers Association at its annual meeting Tuesday night at the Adams Electric Cooperative, rear of N. Stratton St., urged reduction of the number of "limited access highways," claiming the roads work a hardship "not only on the farmer, but on everybody along present highways."

In a resolution adopted by the farmers, they said: "We commend the state for the excellent job they are doing in improving many of our existing highways, but along with this improvement many farmers are put to a decided disadvantage by the establishment of the Limited Access Highway."

"By establishment of this type of highway local township roads have been closed and in several instances fields are left inaccessible or very inconvenient to reach. This type of highway is not only undesirable to farmers but it also puts local service stations and restaurants that are established along the old existing highways practically out of business."

Makes Recommendations

"It also reduces the real estate value of the community by limiting new business enterprises and therefore reduces the total source of taxation in the district, and takes a source of income out of every community the highways go through."

"Therefore we recommend that the Pennsylvania Farmer's Association take steps to: Reduce the number of these Limited Access Highways; try to get needed legislation passed to prevent the closing of existing township roads which would cause hardship to those living along those roads, and see that no highway be barricaded so that the farmer through whose land it passes can't cross it to get into his fields to cultivate them, unless an underpass is provided for that purpose."

Discussion at the meeting indicated that the farmers were fearful that controlled access highways might some day cross the county, and they reported of farms "between Carlisle and Mechanicsburg" and elsewhere, where, according to the farmers, farm owners found they have to travel miles to get to underpasses in order to get into fields on the other side of the road. The group voted to pass the resolution "now, so that we will have protection in the future."

Tax Collector Has Unsigned Check

Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert today is looking for a local property owner who thinks he paid his taxes six weeks ago, but failed to sign his name to his check.

Weikert said he found a check in the mail slot at his home one morning. The check was filled out, with the exception of the signature of the person issuing it. From the amount appearing on the check it apparently came from someone with about a $1,200 assessment on his property, plus two occupational and head taxes.

The tax collector said he hoped the person might call, but he is now passing the word around with the hope that he can save someone the five per cent penalty that will soon be added to unpaid taxes.

A Rock Hill Furnace, Pa., truck driver received lacerations of the head and his tractor trailer was badly damaged when it left the highway in New Oxford this morning at 8:15 o'clock and crashed into a tree at the home of Henry M. Hersh.

The New Oxford ambulance rushed the driver, Harry O'Donnell, to the Hanover Hospital where he received treatment for the head injuries and was discharged.

O'Donnell told spectators at the scene that the brakes of his vehicle locked, throwing the truck out of control and into the tree.

State police are investigating the crash.

The Adams County commissioners today were notified by "Pennsylvania For America" that the new political party anticipates that a "considerable number of votes" will be cast for its candidates at the election in November.

Storm Kills 2, Floods Four Towns, Harasses Shipping

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A big autumn storm that took a water swipe at Florida rolled northward up the coastline today, harrying shipping and threatening low-lying areas with flooding.

It killed two persons in Florida, flooded at least four towns and caused heavy crop losses.

The storm was centered about 110 miles off the Georgia coastline and its winds of 30 to 40 miles an hour were being felt from Florida to the Maryland shore.

It was moving northeast at 13 miles an hour and the center is expected to arrive at Cape Hatteras, N.C., this afternoon.

Storm warnings were up from Brunswick, Ga., to Atlantic City, N.J.

Three-Foot Tides
Squalls over the water contain gale winds. Tides three feet above normal were predicted for the area under the strong winds and the Miami Weather Bureau warned that flooding may occur.

"Seas will be extremely rough," the Weather Bureau said. Heavy rains were falling on the coastal areas ahead and to the west of the center.

The storm, which has not been named, originated near Cuba on Sunday but it is not a tropical storm, weathermen said. It is similar to the great storms that form in the North Atlantic in winter.

The Florida towns of Fellsmere, Kissimmee, St. Cloud and Taft were flooded yesterday as the storm passed by.

15 Inches Of Rain
Rain totaling 15 inches was recorded at Fellsmere. Water accumulated to 30 inches deep in the streets. Roads were blocked temporarily and telephone lines were down.

Floodwaters drove about 200 residents from their homes at Kissimmee. They left behind their cars, clothes and furniture as a creek beside the town rose too rapidly for them to save more.

A tunnel was cut through a railroad embankment to let the water drain away.

PAYS $3 FOR CAR DAMAGE

"An honest motorist," who was in a hurry while passing through town, paid $3 in cash to Lt. Col. Eben R. Jones, of the Gettysburg College ROTC. Here's how it came about.

Today, the Gettysburg Times received a letter addressed to "The Local Newspaper of the Borough of Gettysburg, Gettysburg, Pa." The enclosed letter stated:

"I would like the owner of a late model Oldsmobile, two-tone, blue in color, bearing Pa. License No. 12N65 to have the $3 enclosed for damages done to the R.P. fender of his car. I damaged it about ten days ago when passing through your nice town in a hurry. I feel it was my fault for I backed into it in a parking space. The dent on the bumper I believe will come off. Sincerely, An honest motorist."

"P.S. I might add the owner can take some lessons on driving and parking. The next time I'm in your borough I'll stop in and pay for the ad. and find out the owners' name."

The Times elected not to publish the advertisement. Instead it secured the name of the owner of the damaged car from State Police and today remitted the $3 to Colonel Jones. He said he did not know how his car was damaged.

FAMOUS GAR IS DISSOLVED

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Grand Army of the Republic, formed by Union veterans of the Civil War, was dissolved Tuesday by Judge Burnita S. Matthews.

Judge Matthews acted on a petition presented by GAR attorneys who noted that the last member of the organization—Albert Woolson—died last August at the age of 109 in Duluth, Minn.

At its height the GAR numbered nearly a half-million members.

The remaining property of the GAR—two flags, a quantity of badges and a gavel made from wood taken from Abraham Lincoln's home—will be given to the Smithsonian Institution.

Judge Matthews, 61, was born near Hazleton, Miss. Two of her uncles fought with the Confederate Army while in their early teens.

FARMERS STATE THEIR VIEWS ON MANY SUBJECTS

Adams County's Farmers Association Tuesday evening at its annual convention meeting at the Adams Electric Cooperative building, rear of N. Stratton St., decided to seek state help to protect fruit growers from the orchards of neighbors who have gone out of the fruit business.

A resolution, one of 16 passed by the members, noted in "commercial fruit growing the control of insects and diseases is one of the main problems. In many cases diseases and insect injury results from nearby abandoned or unsprayed orchards or fruit trees. We recommend that the owners of abandoned orchards or unsprayed trees within one-half mile of a commercial orchard be required by law to care for or remove the trees."

The resolution, with the others, will be presented at the Pennsylvania Farmers Association Convention at Holiday Inn November 19 and 20 with the hope that the state organization will adopt a similar resolution and seek state legislation on the matter.

Cover Many Topics
Other resolutions adopted Tuesday night recommended that "daylight saving be standardized in the state and that it definitely end by Labor Day"; that the state should "require the sealing of abandoned wells, cisterns or reservoirs; that strict enforcement of the motor code be made to prevent migrant laborers from 'operating motor vehicles without permit, license or insurance'; that the state be notified where trees are being treated to kill pulp wood 'in order that the plane spotter for oak wilt will not be confused'; that 'telephone companies be required to increase circuits so that no more than four families will be on the same line.'"

Another resolution asks that "the game commission declare a bounty on raccoon to help decrease their numbers. At present they are very destructive with poultry and wild life." Other resolutions ask opening of the small game season November 1, and that "a farmer be appointed to the game commission at all times."

TOMATO CROP PROCESSED AT BIGLER PLANT

Tomato processing at The C. H. Musselman Company's Biglerville plant which started in mid-August has been completed.

A near record run of both tomato juice and puree was produced at the Biglerville plant with Rutgers the principal variety used in the process. No summaries on yields are available as yet but it is generally believed that growers will match records of the early '50's.

Top Cash Crop

The current season is expected to re-establish tomatoes as one of Pennsylvania's leading cash crops after the disappointing years of 1954 and 1955. Production was 139,900 tons in 1954 and only 88,000 tons in 1955. By contrast, production in 1951 was 217,100 tons with an average yield per acre of 9.2 tons.

Reviewing the 1955 season, Donald E. Horst, Musselman crop supervisor, expressed optimism for the tomato industry in Pennsylvania, basing his conclusions on the yields per acre experienced by many Adams County growers.

"In sharp contrast to 1954 and 1955, growers are bound to be encouraged with this year's results," he said. "The season got off to a slow start due to excessive rains and late frosts. However, delays at planting time were offset by normal growing conditions throughout the summer."

Green added that "If the election in Pennsylvania should be close, we should greatly regret if irregularities reported to us would compel us to call for a recount of votes in certain counties and we trust that with your cooperation this will not be necessary. Particularly since the votes to be cast for our candidates may be decisive."

The commissioners observed only: "If any stickers show up, or names are written, in we'll call 'em."

Approval was given by the commissioners for county aid totaling $1,372 for McSherrytown. According to the petition for the aid the town plans to use the sum on work on 834 feet of Delone Ave. from S. Fourth St. to proposed Center St.

This afternoon the commissioners plan to meet with a Gettysburg Joint School Board committee to discuss further proposals by the school board to buy a 10-acre, 15-perch lot of county land along E. Broadway extended. Maps showing the area were turned over to the commissioners this morning by Surveyor LeRoy H. Winebrenner.

Today's Talk

ANTICIPATIONS

It's this habit we have of always looking forward, thinking of things yet to come, or to be revealed to us, that keeps us on our intellectual toes forever anticipating thrills ahead though we may not have those thrills except in outline before they come to us in full form.

As time goes on we become aware that many of the earlier thrills and occupations lose their glow, but there are others to take their place. In a letter from my long-time friend Paul Jordan Smith, literary critic for the Los Angeles Times, he said: "As a man gets older he needs more satisfactions that only await him in books."

Nothing gives me such inward peace and calm as the anticipation of reading a new book that has been presented to me or that I have purchased. It is to just such books that I have turned time and again for mental solace and spiritual renewal. It would appear that a book or books have been written for every mood of man.

It is the light that guides us at night, and when we are ill and confined alone in a room for a long time how much more difficult it is to endure the long night than it is the day with its sunshine and outer views. We who have endured long periods in a hospital know with what anticipation we have awaited the dawn.

It is the anticipation of a trip that makes it so exciting as one's plans are arranged. Often the joy of preparation supercedes the trip. Dreamers have enlivened progress and civilization itself. Why is it that there is so much interest in the discussions about Mars? Are there those who actually believe, or anticipate, that human beings like us live there?

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Just to Know". Protected, 1956, by the George Matthew Adams Service.

Just Folks

TOO BUSY

"Too busy to register!" this is a quote.

So election day found him unable to vote.

But, after his friends failed to win their campaign.

He was never too busy to stop to complain.

He hadn't the minute for voting to spare.

He couldn't waste time in a line waiting there;

But now it's all over, with rivals in power.

He'll stand on the corner and growl by the hour.

"Too busy to vote!" with his name on the rolls.

He left it to others to go to the polls;

But all politicians were lazy and fat

And he wasn't too busy to talk about that.

I go to the polls and my ballot I cast.

I hope 'twill be long ere I come to my last.

And I hope, when the booth is thrown open for me.

That never to vote there too busy I'll be.

while on the historic Byrd expedition to the Antarctic regions, Dr. Lawrence M. Gould, geologist and second-in-command of the Byrd expedition, on Wednesday morning in a lecture at the Majestic theater, stated that his main purpose in lecturing was an attempt to abolish the obscure ideas about Antarctica which are prevalent in the minds of the American people.

Doctor Gould, in presenting the illustrated lecture to the students of Gettysburg college, Gettysburg academy, Gettysburg high school and the Lutheran theological seminary at Gettysburg, stressed the fact that most people desired to know why expeditions are conducted. He explained the reason is the curiosity of mankind.

SENIOR TAKES TO AIRPLANES

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — An attractive high school senior has taken to the sky as a pilot even before learning to drive an automobile.

Seventeen-year-old Jeanette Herling got interested in flying over a year ago. Since that time, she has become a licensed pilot.

The air-minded young miss took her first solo flight in December of last year. Since that time, she has been up alone to sharpen her takeoffs, landings and aerial maneuvers.

To meet the 200-mile cross-country flight requirements for a pilot's license, she flew to Lake Elmo, Minn., near Minneapolis.

Jeanette has tried to drive a car, but says she has trouble because the controls are not as sensitive as those in a plane. So instead of manipulating the wheel, brake and clutch, she takes to the cockpit.

A student at Madison High School, Miss Herling is looking to a sky future — she wants to become an airline stewardess.

NIXON PLANS TO DISCUSS CIVIL RIGHTS ISSUE

By EDMOND LEBRETON
ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Vice President Nixon, who has been crossing cudgels with Democrats on economics and defense, moves into a new field of controversy today—civil rights.

The vice president scheduled a speech here on the civil rights issue, one he has already mentioned as a field in which the Republicans, as he put it, are better organized to be effective than the Democrats.

Nixon drew applause and cheers at a Republican rally in Buffalo last night when he said the American people would be taking a "fearful risk" in electing Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson president in view of his stand on H-bomb tests.

Nixon said Stevenson proposes that "we quit testing our hydrogen bombs provided the Communists agree to do likewise." The vice president said this would be a policy of "military weakness and naive reliance on Communist promises" and would "increase the chances for war."

Stevenson "Hedges"

He said Stevenson has "hedged to an extent" on his original suggestions, but was still proposing to bring about a situation that would sacrifice "the advantage that the United States has in the field of nuclear weapons."

After his speech here, the vice president flies to Ithaca, N.Y., where a nationwide gathering of college newspaper editors is in progress.

His press conference with some of the collegiate newsmen will be nationally televised and broadcast tonight by CBS radio and television.

The time: 8 p.m., EST.

The vice president's aides, meanwhile, announced the itinerary for the first part of his third campaign tour beginning next Monday.

BULLETS OPEN CAGE DRILLS; LOOK TO SOPHS

A sophomore-dominated squad began practice this week at Gettysburg College in preparation for the coming basketball season. Bob Davies, former Rochester Royals and Seton Hall great, is starting his second year as Bullet coach.

Al Teti, the team's top scorer last season and who would have been a senior this year, was among those missing. He did not return to school this year. Teti owns the local floor record of 42 points.

The only lettermen taking part in the practice sessions are Bob Walsack, a 6-2 junior from Newark, N. J., Marty Miller, a six-foot junior from Philadelphia, and 6-2 Wally Kuligowski, a junior from Camden, N. J. Lettermen Bill Ward, 6-4 senior from Libertytown, Md., and Frank Capitani, 5-10 junior from Hershey, are members of the Bullet football team and are expected to report when the grid season ends.

Ten Newcomers
Ten sophomores, evidence that Gettysburg will floor a rather inexperienced team this season, are among the hopefuls. Standouts from the 1955-56 freshman team are 6-8 Tim Cousins, Ossining, N. Y.; 6-6 Del Wafel, Lancaster, N. Y.; 6-3 Walt McGowan, East Lansdowne; six-foot Jack Hathaway, Towson, Md.; and six-foot Art Beck, Glenolden. Other sophs include 6-3 service returnee John Peck, Wayne; 5-10 Don Emich, East Petersburg; six-foot Dick Hawkins, Spring Grove, and 5-10 Walt Melnik, Collingswood, N. J.

Gettysburg, which will play in the Hostra Holiday tournament this year, opens its 26-game schedule on December 1, meeting Temple at the Palestra, Philadelphia. The 1956-57 card includes rugged assignments against Georgetown, Hofstra, Muhlenberg, Penn State, Navy, Wagner and Lafayette.

MIT HAS SOME FOOTBALL FUN

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — Massachusetts Institute of Technology isn't interested in football but it doesn't mind engaging in a little bit of fun.

With tongue in cheek, MIT athletic director Dick Balch "warned" the National Football League of stern competition if it attempts to draft any seniors.

"We welcome Bert Bell (NFL commissioner), Paul Brown or other pro football men to our spring 'draft' meeting for MIT seniors," Balch said. "But we caution them to expect strong competition from such annual visitors as Du Pont, General Electric, Alcoa, Standard Oil and many others."

Ray Walsh, general manager of New York's football Giants, jokingly said Monday that the bonus pick in the NFL draft might be the valedictorian at MIT because of the Cleveland Browns radio-electronic setup to call plays from the bench.

SPORTS IN BRIEF
PHILADELPHIA — Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cardinals is the top ground gainer and Ed Brown of the Chicago Bears the top passer, National Football League statistics show.

NEW YORK—Oklahoma leads all colleges in total offense, scoring and rushing offense, while Washington State is the top passing team, NCAA statistics show.

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Pirates put pitcher George Munger on the waiver list.

CHICAGO — The Chicago Cubs brought up third baseman George Freese, formerly of the Pittsburgh Pirates, from their Los Angeles farm club and sent outfielder Monte Irvin to the coast.

DALLAS, Tex. — John (Red) Davis, manager of the Dallas Eagles in the Texas League, was named to replace Eddie Stanky as manager of the Minneapolis Millers of the American Assn.

CAMDEN, N. J. — Solar System ($9.20) captured the Belmar purse at Garden State Park.

NEW YORK—Muguet II ($12.10) scored a 2-length victory in the Turf Writers' Hurdle Handicap at Belmont Park.

Boy's Injured Finger Proves Real Blessing

BLOOMSBURG, Pa. — Ten-year-old Samuel Gearhart probably is smarter than anyone thinks. He suffered a slight cut on his left index finger and was given hospital treatment and a promise that he would never again be put in a position to suffer such an injury.

Sammy grinned when he heard this.

You see he cut his finger while helping his mother wash the dinner dishes.

M'DONALD IS BACK OF WEEK IN AP SURVEY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Tommy McDonald, Oklahoma's nimble split-T halfback who specializes in the option play, has taken a long step toward repeating as a member of the All-American team.

The 170-pound speedster from Albuquerque, N.M., was chosen Back of the Week in the first such 1956 poll of sports writers and broadcasters conducted by The Associated Press.

McDonald was the principal instrument in the 45-0 rout of Texas last Saturday at Dallas. He scored three touchdowns, tying with a teammate Clendon Thomas in the point-making department.

Tough Competition
He scored one touchdown on a 44-yard run and a second on a 53-yard run and a third on a 35-yard run and an additional 18 yards. The third score was made from four yards out on a plunge.

In all, McDonald gained 160 of his team's 369 yards on the ground. In addition, he caught two passes for 61 yards, returned a kickoff 54 yards and passed 27 yards once to set up a fourth touchdown. He had a 47-yard run canceled by a penalty.

McDonald had to beat out a collection of top-flight backs, including Jim Brown of Syracuse, Ken Wineburg of Texas Christian and John Call of Colgate.

Rising water blocked several roads leading into Lake Okechobee and it was feared that 100-million-dollar tomato crop in that area might be heavily damaged.

Jacksonville got seven inches of rain in 24 hours, two inches more than normal for the entire month of October. Orlando received 4.84 inches.

The two dead were drowning victims, one at Daytona Beach in the heavy surf and the other on a lake near Cocoa when a squall upset a boat.

For the third straight day, rain pelted drought areas in Texas, with rainfall amounts measuring more than 5 inches in McCoy, in the southern part of the state.

Light rain fell in the Pacific Northwest but fair weather, with mild temperatures, prevailed in most other sections of the country.

State Patrolman Does Night Riding

CARTERSVILLE, Ill. — Reports that every horse found on the loose hereabouts belongs to State Patrolman Floyd Myers are highly exaggerated.

Myers, a horse fancier, appears in western riding events.

A telephone report that a horse was wandering on a highway rolled him out of bed at 3 a.m. recently. It wasn't his.

"Whenever a horse gets loose, everybody around here thinks it's mine. I own only six," he said.

INSULTING FENCE

BONNYVILLE, Sask. — Councillors of this Northeastern Alberta town described a new steel picket fence around the federal building as a "Monstrosity." Dangerous and an insult to Bonnyville.

MANTLE ADDS AL SLUGGING TITLE TO LIST

NEW YORK — Mickey Mantle won the American League slugging championship in 1956 with the highest average in 15 years. The New York Yankees' star center fielder piled up 376 total bases in 533 times at bat for a .705 mark.

Figures compiled by The Associated Press today also revealed Duke Snider of the Brooklyn Dodgers was the National League's pacesetter. He edged Milwaukee's Joe Adcock—598 to 597.

The titles were the second for both Mantle and Snider.

Mantle, who also led the junior circuit in batting, runs batted in and home runs, numbered 79 extra-base hits among his 188 safeties last season. In addition to his 52 four-baggers, the 24-year-old switch-hitter had 22 doubles and 5 triples.

Berra, Maxwell Third
Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox, runner-up to Mantle with a .603 average, was the last player to have a better than .705 slugging mark. He finished with .735 in 1941.

Yogi Berra of the Yankees and Charley Maxwell of Detroit wound up in a third-place deadlock the past season. Both showed .534 marks.

Snider, the National League's leader in home runs with 43, also cracked 33 doubles and a pair of three-baggers among 158 hits for 324 total bases.

Hank Aaron of the Braves, the NL's batting champ, tied Cincinnati's Frank Robinson for third place. Each slugged .558.

TRAINER SAYS SWAPS NOT IN GREAT DANGER

CAMDEN, N.J. — The great Swaps, a little uncomfortable from a leg fracture that's keeping him in a sling and standing only on his three other valuable legs, is "not in any immediate danger," says trainer Meshack Tenney.

In fact, Tenney, said, Swaps "is 50 per cent better than Sunday when he reinjured himself."

Tenney's statement, while indicating there was still concern for the condition of the 4-year-old California colt, put to rest for the time being fears that Swaps might be destroyed.

Not Much Chance

These fears arose last night when a spokesman for Garden State Park, where Swaps is stabled, said veterinarians were working feverishly to save the colt. The spokesman said Swaps, winner of the 1955 Kentucky Derby, didn't appear to have much of a chance.

He said complications arising from the leg fracture, suffered in a workout at Garden State Oct. 9, led to the summoning of four top veterinarians. The track spokesman did not say what these complications were.

Swaps suffered the fracture while taking a six-furlong workout. He reinjured the leg while trying to get up in his stall Sunday, breaking the cast on the leg.

Hunters May Take 1st Shots Saturday

Hunters may take their first shot of the season at turkey, grouse and squirrel in Adams County at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, Game Protector Paul Glenn said today.

He explained that there has been some confusion over the opening hour of the season because of the Daylight Saving Time in effect in Adams County, but not in effect in some other counties.

Glenn said all hours for the hunting seasons are listed by the state on Eastern Standard Time. Thus the 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. hours for the grouse, turkey and squirrel season set by the game commission are Eastern Standard and are translated into Daylight Saving Time as 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

OKLAHOMA AND SPARTANS ARE PICKED TO WIN

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK — Eight of 11 selections involving Southern college football teams were wrong last week. In all, there were 30 correct guesses and 13 wrong ones for an average of .698. That makes the season's total 134 right and 39 wrong for .787.

Here are this week's winners — after a menu well spiced with hominy grits and corn pone: Oklahoma over Kansas; The Sooners' No. 1 position is being threatened. That will be Kansas' woe Saturday.

Spartans Over Irish

Michigan State over Notre Dame: Notre Dame's sophomores to get a liberal education watching Michigan State halfbacks Clarence Peaks and Walt Kowalczyk operate.

Georgia Tech over Auburn: The way Auburn handled Kentucky last week was a surprise. This time the Plainsmen will get the surprise.

Mississippi over Tulane: A neighborhood argument that likely will be decided by Paige Cohn's efforts in the Rebel backfield.

Wolverines Too

Michigan over Northwestern: It simply isn't in the cards for the Wildcats to claw their way to victory in this one.

Southern California over Washington: The Trojans have had a lot of trouble during the past year, including a 7-0 setback by Washington in 1955. USC gets revenge this time.

Ohio State over Penn State: Day by day, in every way, the Buckeyes get better and better.

Iowa over Hawaii: Victory No. 4 for the Hawaiana.

Picks Navy, Not Army

Syracuse over Army: The Cadets will be grateful that there are not 11 Jim Browns.

Skipping over some others: Villanova over Boston University, Harvard over Columbia, Dartmouth over Holy Cross, Navy over Cincinnati, Brown over Penn, Virginia over Lehigh, Colgate over Princeton, Boston College over Rutgers, Yale over Cornell.

Illinois over Minnesota, Wisconsin over Purdue, Pittsburgh over Duke, West Virginia over William & Mary, Tennessee over Alabama, Maryland over North Carolina.

Southern Methodist over Rice, Texas A&M over Texas Christian, UCLA over California, Stanford over Oregon.

AUTO CRASHES INTO SCHOOL BUS; 18 HURT

PERKASIE, Pa. (AP)—An automobile that had gone out of control on Rt. 503 a mile east of this Bucks County community collided head-on early Tuesday with a school bus carrying 20 children, state police reported. At least 18 of the children were injured. Six were hospitalized.

State police said the car was driven by Warren G. Glass of Sellersville.

The bus swung toward a ditch on its side of the road in an attempt to avoid collision, state police said. It was operated by Joseph Siek, 69, of Sellersville.

The children were en route to St. Agnes Parochial School in Sellersville. A number of them were taken to Grand View Hospital in Sellersville by motorists who passed the crash scene. Others were taken to the hospital in the Perkaskie Fire Co. ambulance.

Glass was reported in serious condition at the hospital with fractures of both legs and possible internal injuries. Siek's injuries were not determined immediately. Children hospitalized, all of rural Sellersville, were:

FRAULEIN NAMED "MISS WORLD"

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP)—Miss Germany, a green-eyed brunette who used to be a blonde, is the new Miss World.

For a moment Monday night it looked as if Miss United States, 20-year-old Betty Lane Cherry of Orangeburg, S.C., had won the 1956 international beauty title.

When the six finalists filed from the wings of a London theater for the announcement of the title winner, Miss Cherry wore a serene and confident look — plus a sash across her shoulders. The BBC announcer said:

"Oh, Miss United States seems to have won. She's got on the winner's sash."

Whips Sash Off
A contest official quickly whipped the sash off Miss Cherry.

"Sorry," the announcer said, "something seems to have happened."

The title was then awarded to the German entrant, 23-year-old ery, 8; Lloyd G. Hayes Jr., 8; Alma Rogers, 9; Elizabeth Radick, 12; and Edward Means Jr., 9. The hospital said it had not determined the extent of the injuries immediately. It said most involved lacerations and bruises.

CROWD HOOTS OHIO POLICE

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—A crowd estimated at about 500 by the state highway patrol Monday night stormed the strike-bound Portsmouth area telephone exchanges and a phone "blackout" descended again, barely 10 hours after it was lifted.

Rocks and beer bottles were thrown from the crowd at police and telephone operators alike. One man was hurt when a brick hit his head.

The violence erupted hours after the storm clouds began to gather. The crowd had assembled slowly after the state highway patrol escorted operators to their posts. There were sullen catcalls and shouts of "storm troopers."

The crowd was protesting the role taken by the state patrol, under orders from Gov. Frank J. Lausche, in reopening the exchange. The company has been using supervisory personnel in operating the offices.

The crowd struck just three months to the day after some 800 Communications Workers of America Union members struck upon expiration of their one-year contract with Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. The strike covers 23 counties in southern and eastern Ohio, but most of the "incidents" in the long and bitter dispute have centered in this area.

Petra Schurmann, Miss Cherry was second in the competition among girls from 23 countries.

Miss Schurmann gasped and then almost swooned as she received the crown. Miss Cherry leaned over and kissed her.

A reporter asked: "As Miss Germany, shouldn't you be blonde?"

Petra lowered her long eye lashes.

"Frankly," she said, "I was a blonde."

A flowered print bathing suit set off Miss Germany's 36-20-33 figure — and her jet black curls.

FUMES ROUT HUNDREDS FROM SLEEP

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Hundreds of people were routed from their beds by police and firemen today as waves of nauseous, irritating ammonia fumes spread over several blocks two miles from the center of the business section.

The sickening fumes came from a leaking 15,000-gallon tank at the 2nd Avenue plant of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp.

Police and firemen wearing gas masks went from house to house warning residents not to go to sleep and to be ready for evacuation. There was no panic and no one suffered serious effects.

More than 100 police and firemen were called to the scene. The Soho district was the most seriously affected. But the fumes spread to several other sections before two Jones and Laughlin employees — wearing gas masks and rubberized clothing — shut off two main valves on the tank.

Police banned all traffic on several streets surrounding the area. Firemen played streams of water on the escaping ammonia in an effort to neutralize it. It poured over the scene like a white fog.

"It was pretty rough for awhile," said Battalion Chief John McKeown. "We couldn't get within two blocks of that stuff without a mask."

The first elephant to be exhibited in this country was named "Old Bet" and was shown by a New York farmer in 1815.

1957 RAMBLERS GO ON DISPLAY OCTOBER 25

DETROIT — Compactness, economy, new styling, and a higher power-range feature the 1957 Rambler, which goes on sale at Nash and Hudson dealerships on October 25.

A V-8 engine, rated at 190 horsepower, will be available for the first time on the new Rambler. The economy-champion "six," boosted to 125 horsepower, also will be offered. With an optional dual-throat carburetor, horsepower of the "six" will be increased to 135.

Because of its success as the only American compact car, the Rambler will become a separate make of automobile when the 1957 model debuts. In the past the car was known as the Nash Rambler, or Hudson Rambler, depending on which dealer sold it.

Boosts Popularity
The new V-8 series was added to fill out the line of Ramblers, which has become the basic volume car of American Motors Corporation.

"We are confident that the V-8 engine, plus the new styling, will further boost the popularity of the Rambler, which has made great strides in the past two years," said Roy Abernethy, vice president of distribution and marketing for American Motors.

The V-8 engine, which uses regular grade gasoline, develops 190 horsepower to give the Rambler one of the highest power-to-weight ratios in the automobile industry.

"The new engine is designed to give excellent economy, high performance, exceptionally long life and minimum maintenance," Abernethy said.

Kentucky City Cons Speeding Motorists

KUTTAWA, Ky. (AP)—The traffic light seems to be out in the middle of nowhere and motorists spot it from afar as they approach Kuttawa.

And as drivers begin to reduce their speed they also wonder if the light is going to stay red forever.

Which is the whole idea. The signal is only to get motorists to slow down while approaching the city limits. It turns green when the city bound car hits a switch in the pavement.

MENTALLY ILL PATIENTS TO GET "OUTSIDE JOBS"

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader says the number of patients in state mental hospitals is starting to taper off.

It means the state can start to experiment with the idea of permitting some types of patients to work at outside jobs by day and submit to treatment by night, the governor told his news conference yesterday.

"We are determined to put the emphasis on treatment and cure instead of custody," he said. "We are determined to give to the victims of mental illness a useful, happy life instead of imprisonment in a mental institution."

Leader said Pennsylvania is one of only three states which is now showing a decrease in the number of mental patients. Some 50,000 persons are housed in state mental institutions.

"Successful In Belgium" In discussing the so-called day-and-night program, he said it was found successful in Belgium.

"We are thinking of a whole new concept of treating mental patients," Leader said. "There are people for whom this treatment does work."

Leader said it was strictly in the study stage. Details will have to be worked out.

Other news conference developments: Delaware River Toll Bridges—The governor said the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission has approved a $1,129,817 budget for 1957—about a half million dollar reduction from the previous year.

"We achieved this saving by eliminating inherited Republican budget padding," he said. "This is another example of good government business administration and cooperation between the administrations of Pennsylvania and New Jersey."

Ousted 32 Guards Leader said economies were affected by firing 32 armed guards.

"These guards kept a 24-hour watchful eye on these free bridges to prevent their being stolen," he said. "No other reason for these police has yet been advanced."

Politics—The governor said he felt Pennsylvania and California, where he visited on a campaign trip last week, will fall in the Democratic column Nov. 6.

These two states, he added, could "very well be the answer to Democratic prayers" for the election of Adlai Stevenson as president.

Leader said he found no evidence of dissension among top Democratic advisers to Stevenson, adding in answer to a question that he planned no more out-of-state campaign trips.

The governor also said Henry E. Harner, secretary of the commonwealth, will "do very well" in opposing Sen. M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin) for the State Senate.

On mental health, Leader said the problem was leveling off in

HOODLUM STABS SIGHTSEEING PA. STUDENT IN NYC

NEW YORK (AP)—A cursing teenage hoodlum stabbed a Pennsylvania high school student in the abdomen yesterday while the victim strolled along Wall Street with 72 sightseeing classmates.

Richard J. Wynd, 17, of Tunkhannock, Pa., was reported in fair condition today at Beekman-Down-town Hospital.

Wynd, his classmates and three teachers had just visited the financial district and Federal Hall when two young rowdies approached and greeted the group with curses. Then the two started bumping and shoving some of the students.

Swung And Fled Wynd, a husky 5-foot-10, 165-pound senior, told the pair to "cut it out." When they persisted, he hit one of them on the jaw and knocked him down.

The hoodlum got to one knee and swung at Wynd's midsection

Pennsylvania because of the Welfare Department's community clinic program which involves treating senile persons for what they are—old people—rather than as mental patients.

Leader then went into a detailed "progress report" on what his administration has done for mental health in Pennsylvania.

with a knife. Then the two rowdies fled.

Wynd walked a block before he became aware of a sharp pain and saw he was bleeding from the abdomen.

An exploratory operation was performed on Wynd at the hospital. A teacher remained with him until his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Wynd, arrived.

The rest of the class and two teachers left for home.

5,511,168 MAY VOTE IN STATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—More Pennsylvanians will be eligible to cast ballots in the Nov. 6 general election than ever before in Pennsylvania history—more than 5½ million.

With all except Lackawanna County registrations accounted for, records showed a total enrollment of 5,511,168. This represents an increase of 539,822 over the April primary registration figure of 4,971,346.

Democrats registered 287,577 new voters since the April primary and Republicans 253,225, giving the Democrats a 34,352 edge.

Using the primary enrollment figure for Lackawanna County, the registration totals for next month's election, compared with the April primary, are:

Republican, November election, 2,944,650; April Primary, 2,691,425; Democrat, 2,507,851 and 381.

KEFAUVER IN MIDWEST TODAY WITH ATTACKS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver carried his attack on what he called President's Eisenhower's "broken promises" into the Midwest today for two days of campaigning across Missouri and Kansas.

The Democratic vice presidential candidate arrived here by chartered plane from New York City, where he belabored the Eisenhower administration in a nationwide television broadcast last night.

"Under the Eisenhower-Nixon administration," he said, "more heads of government agencies have been involved in corruption than under any administration since the Republican administration

2,220,274; others, 58,667 and 59,547; total, 5,511,168 and 4,971,346.

Republicans continued to top the Democrats in the registration totals but the spread was reduced to 436,799. For the 1952 election Republicans had an edge of a million over the Democrats.

The November election registration represented an increase of 160,198 from the last a-time high in 1952 of 5,341,970.

The breakdown of the 1952 registration was Republican, 3,136,078; Democrat, 2,136,511, others, 79,381.

tion of Gen. Grant."

Quoting from Eisenhower's speeches of the 1952 presidential campaign, he charged the administration with failure to live up to its pledges on farm prices, taxes, cost of living, labor and atomic energy.

"In 1952 and ever since," he said, "Mr. Eisenhower has promised everything to everybody. But he has given everything to the privileged few."

Today Kefauver headed his campaign entourage from St. Louis to St. Joseph, Mo., for a speech and conference with Democratic leaders and thence to Springfield for an evening speech at the Shrine Auditorium. Tomorrow he flies to Joplin and then heads into Kansas.

His Thursday schedule calls for a speech from the Kansas statehouse steps at Topeka in the afternoon and a night rally at Garden City.

Lashes At Nixon Kefauver lashed out again at Vice President Nixon in a speech prepared for delivery at the St. Joseph rally, where he shared the platform with Missouri's Democratic Sen. Thomas Hennings.

Kefauver attacked Nixon for "sly tricks" and "abusing" the Constitution and Bill of Rights "for the purpose of getting elected."

"Even President Eisenhower has had his doubts about Dick Nixon," Kefauver said. "But pileable man that he is, he accepted him when the Old Guard let Harold Stassen know they would have no other."

Banty Rooster Does Hen's Family Chore

COVINGTON, Okla. (AP)—A banty rooster owned by Emil Mackey has given up ruling the roost—he's sitting on the nest.

Mackey said when the banty's mate started a family recently, the rooster promptly moved onto the nest. He says the chickens sit on the nest together.

The owner attributes the un-rooster like behavior to a bad case of loneliness. The two chickens are the only ones on a 20-acre farm.

IKE TAKES HAND IN WASHINGTON BATTLE TODAY

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
SEATTLE (AP)—President Eisenhower turned his campaign today to the battle for Washington state's nine electoral votes with an aide picturing him as optimistic about his chances for carrying Minnesota.

The President's big pitch for the Washington vote comes tonight in an address at a rally at Civic Auditorium here. He will be plugging too for election of Republican Gov. Arthur B. Langlie to the U.S. Senate. Langlie is running against Sen. Warren Magnuson.

Eisenhower arrived in Seattle late yesterday after being greeted by huge, enthusiastic crowds in Minnesota, where he spoke in downtown Minneapolis and St. Paul. Newsmen who have traveled with the President throughout his campaign figured the turnout as the largest so far.

Over 250,000 There
Asst. Police Chief Frank Schmidt estimated 250,000 to 300,000 saw the President in St. Paul and along the way. Acting Police

GREYHOUND

Chief Elmer Norlund put the Minneapolis crowd at an over-all 200,000. There probably was some overlapping in the estimate.

Here in Seattle, the crowds along the route from the airport were thinner than in the Twin Cities, but jam-packed around the Hotel Olympic, where the President and Mrs. Eisenhower are staying.

Word that Eisenhower is optimistic about his chances for winning Minnesota's 11 electoral votes came from White House press secretary James C. Hagerty.

"Tired But Happy"
"The reports we got in Minnesota indicate the President again will carry the state," Hagerty told newsmen.

Eisenhower campaigned hard yesterday and went to bed early last night, "tired but happy," as Hagerty put it. On this second day of a five-day tour into five states, the President's staff kept his schedule clear of engagements to give him time to work on tonight's speech and those he will make the rest of the week in Oregon, California and Colorado.

Hagerty told reporters he was unable to say what the theme of Eisenhower's address here will be.

SAY SHAW IS VICTIMIZED BY CENSORSHIP

By BERNARD GAVZER
CHICAGO (AP) — Shavian enthusiasts today said the late George Bernard Shaw has become a victim of "commercial censorship" and that amateur rights to his play "Pygmalion" have "disappeared somewhere behind the Iron Curtain of a Broadway musical, 'My Fair Lady.'"

The Chicago Law Society said that as a result of the sensational Broadway show—a musical version of Shaw's play—no amateur or stock group in America is allowed to stage "Pygmalion." It also said that the movie version of "Pygmalion" has been withdrawn from public exhibition.

Violates Shaw Will
Elmer Gertz, attorney and president of the Chicago group, and Mrs. Lois E. Solomon, a suburban Glencoe housewife instrumental in formation of the society, said withdrawal of amateur producing rights to Pygmalion violates Shaw's will.

In New York, a spokesman for "My Fair Lady" producer Herman Levin said Levin had permission of Shaw's estate to produce the musical, as well as stage and screen rights to the musical until 1970.

He said the only restriction he knows of is against showing the movie "Pygmalion," which is part of the agreement with the Shaw estate.

The spokesman said that as far as was known there are no restrictions of nonmusical presentations of "Pygmalion."

Bartender Stumped By "Screwdriver"

MURPHYSBORO, Ill. (AP) — Harry Ralston, local Moose Lodge governor, pitched in to help bartenders serve customers celebrating the lodge's sixth birthday.

He was doing OK until a customer asked for a "screwdriver," a new drink made with vodka. It stumped him for a few seconds until he walked to a storage drawer and produced a small screwdriver.

"No," the customer said. "It's a drink."

"Oh!" Ralston said. "I thought you were having trouble with your car and needed a screwdriver."

ISRAEL DENIES ARAB CHARGES ABOUT TROOPS

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel has denied Arab charges that she is massing troops on Jordan's frontier. The Israelis labeled the accusation a screen to mask Jordan's own military activities.

A Jordan Foreign Ministry spokesman first leveled the charge in Amman, declaring that Israel was concentrating troops on the border with "aggressive intentions."

Later Syrian Foreign Minister Salah Bitar called together the Western Big Three's ambassadors in Damascus and told them Syria considered the reported Israeli moves a threat to Middle Eastern peace.

Bitar told the envoys he hoped the Big Three would make a stand "which saves the Middle East from a new explosion, and makes Israel refrain from carrying out further peace - menacing adventures."

A spokesman for the Israeli government brushed aside the troop concentration charge.

"Jordan authorities appear to publish such allegations to provide a smoke screen for reported arms deliveries from Syria and other Arab countries to Jordan," he said.

Securiyt Council To Meet

The Israeli spokesman expressed only slight concern, however, over Syria's announcement that she is sending heavy weapons into Jordan to help defend her Arab colleague's frontier.

Such an exchange of weapons among Arab countries does not increase their combined military strength, the Israeli source said.

"It is only if weapons are brought in from the outside, or if there is an undue concentration of troops on our borders that the situation would be of serious concern," he added.

In New York, U.N. officials reportedly agreed to call the Security Council into session Friday to consider Jordan's request for a review of the border situation.

Umpire Finds That Little Children Lead

DES MOINES (AP) — When a call came from one of the benches in a Little League baseball game recently questioning the honesty of the umpire, the ump threatened to clear the bench.

The players checked among themselves, found that none of them had made the remark.

Finally, a younger brother of one of the players confessed. He said: "I said it. I knew you couldn't say it without getting thrown out — so I did."

Twin Automobiles Are Swapped By Accident

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Two automobiles — same make, same color, same model — collided on a street here without causing serious damage and without injuring the occupants.

But in the excitement that followed, Mike Wright, one of the drivers, climbed into Leon Huey's vehicle and drove away — leaving his own car at the scene of the accident.

Police contacted Wright by tracing his license number. He hurried back to make another swap.

STEVENSON IS CONTRADICTED BY TOM DEWEY

By BEN PHLEGAR
FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey says Adlai Stevenson is unduly alarmed about the dangers of radioactive fallout from hydrogen bomb tests. "He (Stevenson) had the unmitigated gall to say we are in grave danger from testing the hydrogen bomb. That simply is not so and even Stevenson knows it's not so if he'd only do his homework," Dewey declared in a national radio and television address here last night.

Dewey, the GOP standard bearer in 1944 and 1948, devoted about five minutes of his 28-minute speech to giving the Republican answer to Stevenson's proposal that the United States take the lead in seeking to end hydrogen bomb tests.

Invitation To Suicide
Dewey said the proposal "is still an invitation to national suicide." "The total radiation we have so far received from hydrogen bomb tests," he said, "is not as much as we get in one visit to the dentist when he X-rays our teeth."

Dewey said the National Academy of Science shares his view. Stevenson too cited scientific support in a Monday night address when he discussed his concern over the "huge quantities of radioactive materials pumped into the air current" with every bomb explosion.

Stevenson said that the United States could resume testing the bomb within eight weeks if it was learned that some other nation had violated an agreement to suspend tests. To this Dewey replied: "Our Pacific fleet was destroyed at Pearl Harbor with ordinary weapons in 80 minutes. Our greatest cities could be wiped out by the hydrogen bomb in 80 seconds."

ROBERT KITNER QUILTS ABC POST

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert E. Kitner has resigned as the $100,000-a-year president of the American Broadcasting Co. in a policy dispute.

The 47-year-old executive quit yesterday over what he called "differences of policy" with Leonard H. Goldenson, president of American Broadcasting - Paramount Pictures, Inc. The corporation is ABC's parent.

Goldenson immediately assumed "direct supervision" of ABC and, in effect, became acting president. A new president will be chosen later.

Company officials said the differences that led to Kitner's resignation arose over "the need for building a strong organization within ABC with a depth and versatility of executive manpower."

A company spokesman said Kitner was either "unwilling or unable" to achieve this "strong organization."

Customer Takes Firm Name Too Literally

NAUGATUCK, Conn. (AP)—"Sure," agreed the used car lot salesman when the prospective customer asked if he could road test the convertible.

When, after several hours, the customer hadn't returned from the "road test," police guessed he took the firm name too literally.

It was Free Motors, Inc.
